RIFE AND BALES ARE RE-ELECTED

The contest in the county for members of the County Board of Education was probably the most sensational in the history of the county. Unsigned hand bills were distributed over the county at different intervals attacking Supt. Aultman and the County Board members as well as other citizens in the county.

Since the advent of the Klan in the county schools have been the prize the hooded order sought. Two years ago the Klan made an effort but lost and was badly defeated this year.

J. B. Rife and H. E. Bales were opposed by Ray Fudge and Fred Williamson, the first two being up for re-election.

The unofficial vote gave Rife 2287; Bales, 2391; Fudge, 1647; Williamson, 1841.

In Xenia township where the Klan is strongest Hiram Anderson and B. D. Conklin, were re-elected by a close vote over William W. Anderson and Sam D. Andrews.

ELECTION RESULTS WERE NO SURPRISE

The results of the election were no surprise to those who had their hand on the public pulse. To those who were guided solely by their own belief, not wanting to make a survey of even their own community on the justice bill, the result was of course staggering.

The charge early in the campaign that the contest was only a wet and dry one, seems to have meant nothing to the great majority of citizens, who after considering the contradicting statements from proponents of the measure, decided for themselves without advice from a real or fanciful organization that might have sprang up to help educate the voter.

Continued charges that the issue was of wet and dry importance only had a tendency to inflame many voters who openly or under cover, protested such a charge. Thousands of the leading citizens of the state, the men and women held to their personal views, that they should not be made a victim for the profit that might be collected by the highway courts. Stinging charges by Anti Saloon League speakers that opponents of the bill were wet or bootleggers, only solidified sentiment against the bill. Each time such a statement was made turned new converts to the opposition. The drift to the negative side was apparent following almost every meeting.

There is nothing in the election result to give any comfort to the radical wet. The vote was simply a protest against what was a cleverly designed act to circumvent the recent decision of the highest court. It was a makeshift pure and simple and only by resorting to the wildest claims of what the bill would or would not do, could the attention of the public be held. Ohio has never yet witnessed as much misinformation spread about a measure up for referendum as the bill just defeated. The public would not be deceived. The motorist was convinced that it was dangerous legislation and in most instances every motorist stood ready to register his or her protest.

If the Anti Saloon League has lost prestige due to the position it took on this bill it has no one to blame but its own leaders, who made every effort to blind the voter. Scores and scores of times have we heard from our leading citizens the protest of using the churches for the discussion of what was then claimed, and what is now conceded, to be purely a political and an economic question. The Anti Saloon League as now constituted is not the organization of ten years ago and in the future it will without doubt prove much harder for this organization to interest church people unless it is clearly shown that the question involves a moral principle. The deception resorted to on this bill was without question unequalled for. The automobile clubs made no claim during the campaign that was not put forth in the legislature but a lobby of utility interests to get what it wanted aided in jamming the bill through on a trade basis and denying the representatives of the motorists, even a chance to protest the bill on the floor. The electors have only put over what the legislature refused to permit—A PROTEST.

TODAY — ARMISTICE DAY

Today is Armistice Day, a day set aside as the result of the World War conflict, in the observance of Peace. A day that any nation may observe whether having part in that conflict or not.

Armistice Day was a new day born to the world. We had the war of 1812 and the Mexican war. Later the war with Spain. The nearest we might compare this day would be Decoration Day following the Civil War.

The word 'Armistice' is from two Latin words, 'arma', 'arms', and 'stare', to stand still. For four years previous to 1918 this great conflict raged with enormous loss of human life and property. In the wake of such destruction it was pleasing news to the world that 'Armistice' had been declared.

On this day we should pause and give a moment's thought to the 31,000 American graves on European soil. The memory of these boys who lie now on the scene of the great conflict should be refreshed.

It was a fitting tribute to these heroes of the great war that the American Legion would meet on French soil this year and do honor such as an American can typify to her vanquished sons.

Wars of the past have been for material gain but these generations with us now will probably never see such a contest and it is the hope and prayer of the oncoming generations that history will never again record such a war.

THE JOY OF GOOD READING

The reading of good books in this busy day seems to be a lost art with many people. There is so much in the newspapers and magazines of the sloppy order dealing with the suggestive fiction, that younger readers are not taking to reading good books.

Among the great flood of books today, men, especially young men, must choose with care. If they saturate their minds with the idle, worthless, better books are lost to them; and every good book has a lesson, a chapter from life.

Good books are introductions to the minds of the greatest men. Association with greater minds raises our own thought contact, as a needle becomes magnetized by rubbing it against a steel magnet. It is not a mere absorption of print, a great amount of reading, it is what you read and what you get out of it.

The intellectual system of most of us nowadays needs a little renovation and cleaning. Start in now with a good book. It may teach you to appreciate things in other places and other people that you never noticed before.

The long, winter evenings lie just ahead. Devote less of those evening hours to the newspapers and magazines and take up a serious course in reading. You will be surprised to find how quickly your mind will glide into a taste for better reading and how much of the real, true beauty of literature you have missed while wasting your time on trash.

SENATOR BENDER SHOULD CARRY ON

Regardless of the fact that the election is over Senator Geo. Bender, who led the fight against the deceased justice bill in this state should carry on the work he has started. The Senator has the confidence of the great majority of Ohioans who believe in that spirit of fair play that even a member of the legislature should have full and open opportunity to express his views in the committee or on the floor in support of his own or the measure that might have been introduced by another member. Such was not the case during the last legislature with the lobby element in absolute control of both houses and directing what bills should be considered and be permitted to reach the floor for a vote. We have just experienced such a situation and the vote recorded Tuesday is a vote of confidence in Senator Bender, Senator Herbert and Attorney General Edward Turner, who more than once went to bat with the lobby element in the manner in which legislation was being handled.

There have been many things uncovered by the bitter feeling brought out over the justice bill. Some very serious charges have been made as to the conduct of members and the manner in which the prohibition department has been operated. The Attorney General and Senate leaders should press for an investigation. The public has a perfect right to know the truth and the vote Tuesday is proof that much dissatisfaction exists in the dry counties of the state over prohibition management and the recent action of the legislature. The investigation should be called at once. The lobby control in Ohio must be broken and Bender, Herbert and Turner are the ones who should be authorized to "clean house."

OPPORTUNITY

By EVELYN SAGE BROWNE

DON'T wait for your chance to be handed to you. Wrapped up and tied with a bow. Keep right on the job with the goal in view. And learn all there is to know.

Sit tight and watch—but do your best. With the duties of every day, And fit yourself for the final test. When the Big Chance comes your way.

For all things come to those who wait. And work while they're waiting, too. There's no such thing as luck or fate—The whole thing is up to YOU!

Don't make excuses for missing your chance. Or say that it never came—For those who know, can tell at a glance. You're looking for something to blame.

A lot of chances have come to men. Who never knew they were there. So the chances went their way again, And no one could find out where.

Opportunity knocks at many a door. When the fellow asleep inside Missed the thing he was hoping for. Because he had never tried.

So be up and doing—keep wide awake. For your chance may be near—not far. And when it comes for you to take, Just grab it—and there you are! (Copyright.)

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

MAKING GOOD THINGS

IN PEKING, China, there was, and very probably still is, a blacksmith who all his life has fashioned nothing at his tiny forge but donkey bits, simple rods of metal with a ring at each end to which the reins of the patient burden bearers are fastened.

For hundreds of years his ancestors have been engaged in the same occupation. Century after century, son following father, has striven to maintain the reputation of the highest grade handicraft and to fit his product to the craft which with each of them have sprung—I guide the hammer and a king guides the bit!

There is a Chinese saying which originated, I suspect, among that group of Eastern philosophers of which Confucius was the leader, which says: "To make good things is best."

What a wonderful motto for a workman! What a splendid slogan for the man at the bench.

To make a good thing, to seek perfection in the simplest tasks, to study and strive to outdo in your present task all the accomplishments of the past AND TO SUCCEED is more satisfying than any other recompense that can result from our efforts.

One of the bitter things of old age, to those who have honestly striven, is that its weaknesses, its dulling of the human tools, its limitation of effort makes it seem impossible to keep up to the standard that we set for ourselves in earlier days and strong moments.

After all, there is one masterpiece at which we all work daily, whether we will or no. That is OURSELVES. Whether, when it is finished, it shall be a credit and a source of pride, rests wholly upon the honesty and faithfulness of our efforts.

Do not figure your success altogether in dollars. Do not measure your accomplishments solely by fame. Remember that there is a satisfaction in well doing that money cannot measure and that genius in an unknown cave is no less genius for being hidden.

Sing with the old blacksmith of Peking and keep your eye on his snake-gripped mallet—"To make good things is better than gold."

HOSSEA PREACHES GOD'S LOVE

LESSON TEXT—Hossea 11:1-4, 8, 9; 12:4-5

GOLDEN TEXT—I desire mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Wonderful
Love.

JUNIOR TOPIC—God's Wonderful
Love.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
The Unchangeable Love of God.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
The Loving-Kindness of God.

Hossee's message was primarily to Israel. The nation was outwardly prosperous, for its height of temporal glory was reached in the time of Jeroboam II. (See II Kings 14:29). With this prosperity came luxury, immorality and apostasy. Calf worship and Baal worship were substituted for the worship of God.

1. The Apostasy of Israel (chs. 1-3).
Israel's covenant relationship with Jehovah is presented under the figure of a marriage. Their spiritual whoredom is symbolized by the example of an unfaithful wife.

2. The marriage (1:1, 2).
Hossee was commanded by God to take an unchaste woman to be his wife. While this was a strange act, yet it was right, for it was commanded by God, and its motive was the elevation of the woman to the prophetic moral plane. It was designed to show God's wonderful condescension and love in entering into covenant relationship with a nation of such immorality.
The nation had no more to commend it when God chose it than this unchaste woman when Hossee contracted marriage with her.

3. The unfaithful wife (ch. 2).
Notwithstanding the wonderful condescension on the part of the prophet in contracting marriage with this woman, Gomer, the unfaithful wife, departs from him to consort with her former base lovers. This shows Israel's base ingratitude in their departure from God to go after idols. Sore chastisement fell upon her for her unfaithfulness.

4. Illustration of Gomer, the unfaithful wife (ch. 3).

This illustrates God's undying love for Israel. The motive governing the prophet's act was love. God's love for Israel is just as real. His grace will yet move Him to take back that nation to Himself.

5. God's Love for Israel (Hossee
11:1-4, 8, 9).

1. Its beginning (v. 1).

It began when Israel as a nation was in its childhood. God loved the nation even while in Egypt.

2. God called Israel out of the bondage of Egypt and brought them into Canaan, the land of freedom—flowing with milk and honey. Such love and favor placed Israel under peculiar obligation to God.

3. "Taught Ephraim to go" (v. 3).

In spite of Israel's backsliding (v. 2),
God is represented as teaching Israel how to walk, even as a father taking up his child in his arms. God watched over them as parents watch over their children by night.

4. "I drew with cords of a man" (v. 4).

Observe that His drawing was not with a stout rope as used with an unruly heifer (ch. 10:11), but a cord such as a man would use. God's wonderful love in Christ should constrain us to obey and serve Him.

5. Took off the yoke from the Jews and placed food before them (v. 4).

The figure is of a husbandman lifting the yoke from the oxen so that they could eat.

6. Unwillingness to "give" them up
(v. 6, 7).

In spite of all Israel's sin, God was unwilling to destroy them.

7. God Pleads for Repentance
(12:4-5).

Notwithstanding their awful sin,
God urged Israel to turn to Him.

He is doing the same to backsliders today. He made promise unto them.

1. "I will heal their backslidings" (v. 4).

This on the condition of frank and full confession.

2. "I will love them freely" (v. 6).

This is characteristic of God. Only God can express unmerited love.

3. "I will be as the dew to Israel" (v. 6).

God will refresh the nation as dew does the parched grass.

4. Growth promised (v. 6).

5. Beauty assured (v. 6).

6. Pleasant fragrance (v. 7).

While this is a picture of the restored nation, something similar may be seen in the fragrant, fruitful lives of men and women who have sinned and come back to God.

All in Green Gowns

By CLARISSA MACKIE

(Copyright.)

AND so you are wearing green?" remarked Ella Neilson as she looked at Kathleen's new dress for the party.

"Yes, you know it is my favorite color—perhaps I rather fancy it because my eyes are green."

"Are they green?" inquired her friend coolly. "I always thought they were grayish blue."

"No, indeed," laughed the other girl. "Mother has bought me a string of jade green beads—pretty, aren't they?"

"Lovely," murmured Ella indifferently, and presently she made some excuse and hurried on, but she did not go home then. She went to call upon several other girls of their set, and there was much laughter and giggling.

As for Kathleen, while she felt hurt about Ella Neilson's indifference, she did diagnose the case correctly. "I am afraid that Ella is a little jealous about my wearing the green dress," she told her mother that evening.

"You must not mind that, my dear," smiled her mother. "I am sure that Ella will wear a pretty frock and by that time she will have quite forgotten her jealousy. Did she ask you anything about Frederick?"

Kathleen shook her head. "I think that she was so upset about my dress that she never thought of my escort." "And she will take it for granted that Frederick will take her, as usual!"

"I suppose so, mother. I hope she finds it out before Thursday, though!" Ella Neilson did find it out on Wednesday and she was furiously angry with both Frederick and Kathleen. She had met the young man near the town hall and she made the fatal mistake of taking it for granted that Frederick would be her cavalier as he had been several times in the past.

"What time will you come for me, Fred?" she asked when they were parting, and he had not mentioned the party.

"Ella Neilson!" he chided, trying to hide his embarrassment. "You know perfectly well that I am not coming to escort you to the party! Please do not tease a young man with political views upon his shoulders!"

Ella smiled widely, nervously, and turned away. "That's a good joke on you, Frederick!" she giggled and went on, and Frederick, guessing her chagrin, and feeling somewhat guilty, went on his way, and in the midst of an important piece of work forgot all about Ella Neilson, though he did have a minute now and then to devote to Kathleen, who had quite stolen his heart.

That afternoon Ella Neilson called upon several of her masculine friends and asked them to get up after her several failures. At last received an invitation from George Moore. "I am going in my car," he said, "and I'll like to take you, Ella—sure that I'm not butting in on Fred—or anything like that?"

"Very sure," said Ella sweetly, "and thank you, George. I will be ready at eight o'clock."

One of the queer things about the party that night was that eight o'clock sounded and went by and very few girls arrived.

There was the usual stag line of unattached young men, and there were some girls and their escorts. Pretty girls and plain girls in pink and yellow and blue and a few in white or black.

At a quarter after eight Ella Neilson arrived with George Moore, and she looked like a rose in a charming pink dress, and then in groups or by ones and twos came the other girls of her particular "crowd" and every girl wore green! Every shade of green, all, satin, or georgette in combination with another color was represented, and there was much laughter while Ella Neilson saw here, there, and everywhere in her rose-pink dress, like one lovely rose in a plain green garden of girls!

And then, just a little later, came Kathleen with Frederick Warner. Kathleen was all in green, too, but her dress was somehow different from the others—it was a beautiful shade of green, and she wore an odd string of jade beads.

"How odd that so many should wear green!" she confided to Fred as they danced. "Of course it is worn a lot—but our whole crowd is wearing green, all except Ella. Doesn't she look adorable in the pink?"

Frederick had keenly observed Ella Neilson, but he merely said: "Looks like a peony! Kathleen, you are like a cool green rush growing in a quiet pool."

Kathleen blushed adorably and smiled at him. "There are so many of us green rushes, Frederick—I am afraid we are like the wild flags in the meadow."

"Never mind," he only whispered. "Among them all, Kathy, there is just one green. You!"

When the evening was over, and Frederick and Kathleen walked home under the early morning pale moon, it was then that Frederick confessed to Kathleen that he did not like any other girl except her—and it came out in just the way that all happily ending love stories do! As for Ella Neilson—it was something of a tragedy for her when she fell in love and married a man by the name of Green!

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS ITEMS

The High School pupils wish to thank the voters of Cedarville and Clinton for their support of the Junior project—Tag Day. By this means $55.27 was added to the "Locker Fund" for which the school is very thankful.

The football game between Cedarville and Beaver, played Nov. 4th on the Beaver grid resulted in a scoreless tie. Both teams tried desperately to score but were successfully held by their opponents which resulted in a very interesting game.

November 18th Cedarville Football squad plays Bath Township High School on the home field. Since this is the last game of the season and Bath is a formidable rival the coach and squad hope for a record attendance. Remember the date—Nov. 18 at 3:00 P. M., Cedarville.

Be sure to be on hand to hear what the "Wise Old Owl" has to say on November 21. Don't miss it!

The first program of the Owl Literary club will be given on this date. A delightful program is being planned for your entertainment. It will consist of playlets, dialogues, monologues instrumental and vocal music—a program well worth ten cents. Who-o-o? Who-o-o? Who-o-o? Why YOU—that's who!

ATTENDANCE RECORD
The attendance record for the second month of school is quite good. The highest percent of attendance is credited to the high school where it should be. The record is 98.9 per cent with the lowest in the second grade at 92 per cent. The average for the entire school system for the month is 94.7. Regularity in attendance at school means good work and the school folks are happy to have the attendance stand at the highest possible point. Pupils who are sick should not be in school yet when a boy or girl is well there should be very little reason for any absence on his or her part. The cooperation of the community will keep the attendance record at a high mark and we all appreciate such cooperation.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING
At the regular meeting of the Council a vote of appreciation was given Hartley Bailey for the commendable way in which he had handled the parking proposition since the opening of the new street on the south side of the building. The main street in front of the building is now clear and motorists can see any movements of the pupils long before they pass the building.

Among other matters discussed the Council planned some of the outstanding activities of the school for the coming Basketball season. Fuller and more complete announcement will be made next week.

For the past two weeks, Miss Washburn, one of the High School teachers has been unable to be at school on account of illness. She has been suffering from grippe and pleurisy and her present condition is not up to standard. From reports we hope she will be able to resume her duties next week.

RUPTURE SHIELD EXPERT HERE

E. J. Meinhardt, of Chicago, the well-known expert will personally be at the Shawnee Hotel, Springfield, O. on Wednesday, Nov. 16th, from 10:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M., and on Thursday November 17th from 10:00 A. M. to 1:00 P. M. only.

Mr. Meinhardt says: "The Meinhardt Vacuum Shield" will not only retain the Rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case—usually giving instantaneous relief withstanding all strain regardless of the size or location of the Rupture.

CAUTION—Do not expose yourself to the danger of wearing old-style trusses with undertraps. These trusses usually place the pad on the lump and not on the rupture opening. This often causes strangulation which usually necessitates an immediate surgical operation or results in sudden death.

"The Meinhardt Vacuum Shield" has no undertraps. It is also perfectly sanitary and practically indestructible and can be worn while bathing. Only gentlemen are invited to call at this time as special arrangements will be announced later for women and children.

NOTICE—Please do not write asking to be fitted by mail as this is impossible. I send out no literature as every case must be seen personally; therefore, I visit this section every year—giving demonstration without charge, or will be pleased to fit you if desired. All cases that I have fitted here during the past five years will please call for inspection. Please note the above dates and hours carefully and always insist on seeing me personally. (This visit is for white people only.) E. J. MEINHARDT, Home Office, 1551 N. Crawford Ave., Chicago.

P. S. FRAUD WARNING: Beware of impostors who imitate my name and claim to represent me. I have no representatives and send out no literature. (Advertisement)

Welcome Phone Screens

There are many ways of making pretty telephone screens, and they are acceptable gifts for either men or women friends. The simplest are made with figured cretonne for covering and plain satin for lining. The cretonne is stretched over a foundation of very thick cardboard, and the satin over a like foundation of thin cardboard, using a stainless glue to fasten the fabrics to place. Then these covered foundations are glued together. A narrow strip of cretonne glued between the two foundations will form hinges for joining the sections.

Cartia Hughes recently had an operation at the McClellan Hospital. He is said to be recovering. His division of the Freshman Latin class prepared and sent him a basket of fruit.

Ruth Mitchell has also been absent since the first of the school year. She is considerably improved at this time and is eager to come to school and take up her duties here.

On Choosing Wallpaper

How to choose wallpaper is the subject of a learned article in a recent magazine issue. Well, it seems some women choose it in about this way: They pick a pattern the rest of the family doesn't like and then, after it's on the wall, they find they don't really like it, while the rest of the family gets used to it. What a REXALL One Cent Sale Is

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying one cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.
